

Privacy policy

Last edited 6/10/2019

Dive-Expo cares about protection of your personal data and respects your privacy.

In this privacy statement you get clear information on what data we collect and how we process it. We do everything we can to maintain your privacy and therefore we handle your personal data with care. Dive-Expo sticks to the law and rules in all cases, including the General Data Protection Regulation.

This means:

- Only processing the personal data of our visitors for the reason it was asked of them.
- Asking your permission for keeping and handling your personal data.
- No personal data will be given to other parties.
- To be informed of your rights about your personal data, That we point to it and respect it.

If you have any questions about the safety and processing of your personal data, Please contact Stefan Panis.

Stefan Panis

info@dive-expo.eu

0473/86.91.61

Dive-Expo processes data for the next purposes:

- By submitting for the photocontest. Your personal data will be used for the appointing. If you are considered for a prize(to contact you. The photo sent by you will be shown at the expo. When the contest is over, all data will be destroyed.
- When you order tickets, the information you filled in will be saved. This data is used to make the invoice, validate your ticket and protects you against ticket fraud. This will also be used to make contact in case there was made a mistake. Afterwards all data will be deleted.
- When you fill in and send something through the section 'contact', We receive a mail containing all data you filled in. This will be used to answer your question/ note and make contact with you. Your personal data will not be saved.

Other parties

Your personal data will not be shared with other parties unless we specifically ask your permission.

Retention period

Dive-Expo keeps the data no longer than needed. At the end of every edition, your data will be deleted.

Your right concerning your personal data

You have the right to watch, edit or delete your personal data saved by us. On top of this document you can find a way to contact us.

Complaints

In case you have any complaints about the handling of your personal data, please contact us.

You always have the right to press charges at the Privacy department. This is the supervisory authority considering privacy protection.

Modifications in privacy policy

Dive-Expo can change her privacy policy. On top of the document you can find the last date where it was changed.